Lions Hear Report On Coaching Clinic

Program committee of the Hamlin Lions Club came up with a last minute call on coaches of the local high school for a report on the coaching clinic which was closed last week in Austin.

Coach Jess Burditt of the Pied Pipers was accompanied by Assistant Coach Vernon Townsend in appearing before the club and an explanation of the functions of the school was made.

Comparison of the coaching technique of Munn and Wilkinson revealed a radical departure from the usual cut-and-dried blueprint of play and both coaches were loud in their praise of the information gained from attendance at the clinic.

Football, basketball, baseball and track were covered by outstanding men in the coaching profession and many ideas were passed on to the coaches assembled.

Burditt asserted that the same resume results from attendance at the school, in that any system will prove effective if you have the boys to execute the plays.

Janet Bonner furnished musical accompaniment for the motley arrangement of male voices which comprise the club.

Mrs. W. R. Wilkerson Malouf Alterationist

Announcement was made this week that Mrs. W. R. Wilkerson has accepted a position at Malouf's Department Store as a saleslady and in charge of alterations.

Gordon Bennett Is Eloquent In Speech Before Rotarians

Hamlin's Rotary Club met at The Drive-Inn Cafe Wednesday noon for their regular luncheon and heard Gordon Bennett, assistant to the president, of McMurry College, Abilene.

Mr. Bennett, a former Hamlinite, told the club several stories and yarns. He discussed a topic "What Is The Truth".

He asked this question of the Russian-Korean situation and about business. Continuing he said that only by three baisses could we find truth: first, by the scientific research; second, by philosophical; third, by faith.

Guests to the club were: from Abilene, W. D. Gullledge, E. E. Hall, Bill Blakney, C. M. (Pop) Vaden; from Stamford, O. A. Keney, L. E. Lovelless, J. H. Crawford, Billy L. McCaulley. The party has returned to Hamlin and are gradually returning to their normal activities at the Bryant-Link Company Store.

Wells East of Town Get Principal Play

Progress is reported in Jones County oil drilling for the week past with principal interest in the developments near the Amerson properties east of Hamlin.

The S. C. Herring Drilling Co. Amerson well was tested for approximately 30 barrels of oil per hour from the Swastika sand on a 20-64 inch choke.

Jones and Stasney, et al Roberts number one, which is a west offset to the Amerson well is running 22 feet higher than the Amerson and pipe has been set in the Swastika.

Encouraging signs from the number one well has led to striking of the Number Two well by the same operators.

Sohio Oil Company is drilling below 1400 feet on their J. F. Compton Number 1 and as previously reported, Whaley and Baise wells have been staked in that area.

The Ralph Riddle well which was drilled by Carl Schultz was dry and abandoned after running low to a former dry hole on the Riddle properties. This would define the trend as running definitely eastward and there is a possibility that Schultz will drill an east extension from the Riddle dry hole.

In other portions of the county Texas & Pacific Coal and Oil Co. have plugged their Tucker Number 5 after failure to find production in the Canyon Reef.

T&P is below 1500 feet on their Pardue 12-E, an Ellenburger test in the Pardue field.

The same operator is drilling the plug on their Cassle Number 2 a Swastika well in the Pardue field. Their Cassle Number 1 continued to make some water and a pumping unit is being installed. T&P also installed a pumping unit on their Tucker 4, which has been completed for some weeks.

West Central Drilling Company is below 2000 feet on their A. S. Brown Number 2 in the Round Top Field.

Both Culbertson wells, east of Hamlin are attempting production from the Strawn after squeeze jobs were performed to shut off encroaching water.

W. C. Matchett and Fred Moore of Hamlin were two out of the 14 Jones County delegates to the State Democratic Convention in Mineral Wells, September 12, No. 14.

Last week in Anson, the delegates were directed to vote as a unit, but are uninstructed.

Property Transfers Hamlin Topics

Real estate transactions occupied the interest of Hamlin during the past week, principal of which were transfer of the J. B. Terrell, Jr. residence to Clyde Grice, manager of the Midwest Co-op Oil Mill for September 1 delivery. Second transaction was that in which Art Carmichael disposed of his recently completed home of West Lake Drive to Holly Toler. Sale of the Carmichael home to Toler precludes the anticipated move of the Toler family to Sweetwater.

The Toler family took immediate possession of their new home and completed moving Wednesday to the new quarters.

Carmichael has purchased another building site and work will be started immediately on construction of a new home on that property. The family is temporarily maintaining a residence on the north side.

Terrell has not yet completed plans for his residence after surrender of his home premises.

O. D. Roland had previously purchased the Toler home on North Central Avenue and will move immediately into that residence.

Revival Meet Begins At Fairview Church

A revival meeting will begin at the Fairview Baptist Church (tonight) Friday at 7:45 and continue through Sunday, August 20.

Rev. Melvin Byrd of Lueders will be to the preaching. Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Agnew will be in charge of the song services.

Morning services will be at 10:00 a. m. and the night services began at 7:45.

Rev. K. E. Wooley of Abilene, pastor, invites everyone in the surrounding communities to attend the services.

Mrs. Etta Stevenson had as visitors this week Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Carradth who were returning home from a vacation in California. While the couple were their visitors W. D. Stevenson of Blackwell and W. A. Stevenson of Abilene and visited Sunday at McCaulley, their home town. Before returning home they will attend a convention in Dallas.

Cardinals Continue To Take Opposition

Hamlin Cardinals continued to ride the victory trail in games of last week when they trounced the Magnolia Oilers from Sweetwater in a Tuesday night game and pinned another defeat on the Loraine club in a Sunday afternoon game.

The Sweetwater club presented a poorly balanced club which offered little opposition to the Cardinals. Claybrook offered a good assortment of stuff on the mound for the visitors but suffered from the lack of a capable catcher and six glaring errors contributed to his defeat.

Wilson had a world of stuff in the early innings of the game and when a shutout was assured, retired in favor of Runt McCoy. Wilson set down the Sweetwater boys with seven strikeouts and McCoy retired the side on strike-out the last two innings he worked.

Brad Rowland, Jr. scored four times for Hamlin. Duck Weaver got the only extra base hit in the loosely played contest.

Final score was 11-0, Hamlin. Sunday's game found Hamlin hard pressed to win from the Loraine club by a 4-3 score.

Some sparkling play behind Glenn Adair pulled the Cardinals through some rough spots throughout the game. Joe Ford turned in a pair of sparkling stops at the short stop position and robbed the Loraine batsmen of what were apparent hits. Truman Nix was a late addition to the Loraine club and performed better in his stint behind the plate than he did as a left fielder.

Brad Rowland, Jr. picked one out in the fourth inning and sent it over the wall for a home run. The bases were empty. Vaughan and Butler hit doubles for Hamlin and Butler delivered the base hit in the ninth inning that drove in Clyde Brown with the winning run.

Hamlin has scheduled a game with O'Brien for Friday night at 8:15 and it can be depended upon that Johnson will bring a strong ball club here.

Fourteen from State Enter Fisher Contest

Fourteen young Texan model builders were named award winners in the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car competition. It was announced this week in Detroit where judging has been in progress for three weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Womack of Goathwaite has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Milsap, Hamlin, who has been troubled with arthritis.

Ruby Lee Sleger visited in the home last week of Mrs. L. S. Magee.

Over Fifty Indicate Football Interest

Forty-three aspiring football players assembled at the high school Tuesday evening for the first meeting of the season in answer to a call from Coaches Jess Burditt and Vernon Townsend.

Added to this group was another squad of eight who had signified that they will be present for practice at the first session Tuesday, August 14. These boys could not interrupt their work to attend the survey meeting.

Coaches indicate that they expect about ten additions to the original squad and that the final assembly will exceed fifty men. Only unanticipated loss to the squad will be Dean Phipps, who had been counted on for considerable duty at center for the Pied Pipers for the season. Phipps has removed to Dallas and will not be available for play.

Principal losses through graduation and ineligibility will be Joe Allen Dean, Harold Johnson and John Holland. Main problem for the local staff will be a replacement for Dean at the quarterback slot.

The attending lettermen and squad candidates voted to stage two workouts daily at the Tuesday night meeting and selection of captains for the team will be deferred until after start of the training program. Morning work will start at 7:30 and end at about nine and afternoon training will start at 3:30 and last approximately two hours. A greater portion of the afternoon session will be devoted to field workouts.

Members of the staff are optimistic about this year's prospects in that members of the squad of last year are growing and are larger than last year and they have had the experience of a successful season under their belts. Barring unforeseen injury to key members, the team should shape up well when they take their positions against Stamford on September 8.

New helmets and other equipment have been received and will be issued to candidates prior to start of the pre-season workouts. Twice daily workouts will continue until the start of school on September 4 or 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dennis, former Port Arthur coach for 20 years, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Roland last week.

Stadium Complete Except for Lumber

All steel erection has been completed for Hamlin's new football stadium and workmen are now awaiting the arrival of lumber with which to complete the seats for the structure.

Word was received here that the lumber had been loaded from a mill in Arkansas and the shipment is expected daily.

Termination of work on the new plant will provide spectators with 2,000 seats on the west side of the playing field and greater comfort for the fans will be a feature in all future Pied Piper games. First row of seats in the new stands will be five feet above the ground and a clear view of activities on the field will be provided at all times.

Sale of options for reserved seats in the new section has slowed somewhat and the purchase of the special privilege is expected to be withdrawn shortly before the start of the season. Temporary sales center for these options has been set up at Waggoner Drug and they will be available there until withdrawn from circulation to the public.

An improved system of seat identification has been instituted this year and there should be no confusion resulting from purchase of tickets prior to day of the games.

Local FFA Boys Hold Three Day Meet At Possum Kingdom Officers Training

Local Future Farmers of America chapter officers held their first annual officers training school last Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Possum Kingdom Lake. Purpose was to prepare them selves to be more competent officers for the coming school year.

Topics taken up during the school were: planning the annual program; work for the local F. F. A. Chapter; duties and responsibilities of chapter officers; practicing parliamentary procedure and discussed the plans for improving chapter meetings. Final Touches On X-Ray Drive Ready Intensity of the drive to stimulate interest in the tuberculosis x-ray campaign that is to reach its zenith Saturday, Monday and Tuesday in Hamlin, increases as the arrival date nears.

The mobile unit is to be set up in showrooms of the Hamlin Motor company and the days should have a capacity of applicants for examination. Boy Scouts are to make a house-to-house canvass in the interests of the free service to the public and Chairmen Stan Carmichael and Wesley Nail will know of the success or failure of the campaign from the reception received by these boys.

The heads of the movement are confident of the success of the movement if the people of Jones County recognize that tuberculosis is lies dormant in many individuals without their knowledge of its existence. Many instances are known when discovery of the infection was only through use of the x-ray service.

Particular stress is placed on the fact that the service is absolutely free and no preparation is necessary for the examination. There is also no obligation to subscribe for treatment if the disease is found to be present.

Thirty-Six More Men Subject To Draft Call

Thirty-six more men will be called by the Jones-Shackelford-Haskell County Selective Service Board for physicals on August 17 according to an announcement by Mrs. Aubrey Dunwoody, secretary at Anson.

Since 24 men have already been called by the local board for physicals on August 10, the number on August 17 will bring the total August quota to 60.

Texas must furnish 2,514 men for the October draft.

Physicals of draftees are taken in Dallas the report concluded.

While Haynes was making a connection on the wellhead, he was overcome by escaping hydrogen - sulphide gas and fell into the well cellar. Holt carried the unconscious man from the well and applied artificial respiration for approximately 30 minutes before being relieved by other workers.

TRACKS SNAKES—For 15 years Thomas Young, age 52, has caught snakes sunning themselves on a railroad track near Lyndhurst, England, home. Turning the reptiles over to Southampton University's zoology department, Young has averaged about 15 snakes a week. Setting two and two together, the odder can tell that he's about the seventh specimen to be bagged by Young.

Paul Was a Model of Tolerance

SAID Paul, hundreds of years ago, "I do not frustrate the grace of God."

If countless thousands of Americans could repeat those same words today in utter sincerity, the growing problem of anti-semitism would be non-existent.

Paul knew that prejudices die hard and that the finest of faiths can become warped by bigoted perspective. And so, when well-intentioned early Christians sought to impose their beliefs on others, he took a strong and uncompromising stand.

He pointed out that the law of God can never be perfectly fulfilled; he asserted that faith is "the end of the law for everyone that believeth." Apart from this wise observation, he did not try to persuade Jewish Christians to abandon Jewish rites.

Many who turned to the fellowship of the Christian church still observed requirements of the Jewish law. But because the power of the Gospel was manifest in them, Paul resisted the temptation to criticize them for clinging to parts of their religious heritage.

Some of the disciples, however, were unbending. They rebuked young mothers who brought their children, versed in Jewish rituals, to the temple for the blessing of Jesus. The Bible tells that Jesus was "much displeased" at those who condemned rites, observances and rituals foreign to their own belief.

The grace of God, which is compassionate and understanding, is not compatible with prejudice.

Paul knew this and observed an attitude of tolerance and common sense in two ways. He regarded the rights and liberties of his fellow Jewish Christians and simultaneously upheld the rights and liberties of the gentile converts.

Paul might well serve as a warning to those who frustrate the grace of God with narrow, spiteful prejudices.

Laundrying of Different Cottons Subject Of Discussion by Home Demonstration Agent

Laundrying a cotton dress today requires just a little more than tossing it into the washing machine with the family wash, says Loreta Allen, Jones County Home Demonstration Agent. Especially is this true if the dress is one of those smart fashionable cottons that the housewife wants to keep looking smart through the season.

Today, cottons can be washed in the tub just as easily as ever if the finish of the material receives close attention. Look to the label of new goods, whether piece or ready to wear, for information on residual shrinkage and color fastness when subjected to light and washing.

In regard to special finishes on cottons, such as the crispness of organdie or the glaze of glazed chintz, check carefully to make sure that the finishes are durable. A durable finish will wash for the life of the fabric.

Light laundrying of a garment before it becomes badly soiled will extend the life of the material by removing the dirt, dust and perspiration before they become deeply embedded in the fabric, cutting the threads and quickly wearing them apart.

Some laundrying suggestions recommended especially for finer cotton dresses are the removal of any trimmings, buttons and buckles that may be damaged in the laundrying, the removal of any spots or stains that need a special solvent or cleanser before wetting the dress, the handling of colored garments as quickly as possible, and using heavy suds made from mild neutral soap in warm water. Referring to the actual washing process, immerse the entire dress and squeeze the suds on through the material. Never rub or scrub delicate fabrics. For heavier soiled spots, such as those on collars and cuffs, use a small brush and brush lightly. Rinse in two or three waters, being sure that the first rinse is the same temperature as the wash water. Cold water hardens soap and makes it adhere to the fabric. Soap left in a garment may cause yellowing or weakening of the fabric.

If the label on the garment says "permanent finish" or if the fabric is wrinkle resistant, no starch is needed in the garment. A closely woven fabric such as gingham or chambray should not be starched for the first four or five laundryings. It will retain a new look longer without starch. Caution is recommended in using new soaps or synthetic detergents which require no rinse. She says that clothes which are washed, and not rinsed have a tendency to scorch easily during the ironing process.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hartgraves and daughter went to Alto over the week-end to be at the bedside of her sister, Mildred Echols who is critically ill. He returned early this week.

Luke, author of a book in the New Testament, was a physician.

C. B. Phoenix of Hamlin was a medical patient in a Rotan hospital last week.

Dining rooms, say many families, are stuffy, especially in the summer. Out-of-the-house eating is today's trend. Informality is the keynote of modern living. All of which adds up to picnics. Food tastes better on the terrace, in the back yard, or at the picnic grounds.

Food manufacturers of 1950 have made it easy to plan and fill the picnic basket. Think of the foods you can buy ready-to-eat or requiring a minimum of preparation in the home kitchen. Cans of baked beans, dozens of baked buns, loaves of cold meats and summer sausages, pickles, potato chips. The store offers radishes, green onions, potato salad, fruits of all types.

So it's a picnic for the family and almost a vacation for mother on the next hot summer day. How does this menu sound? It ought to fill a growing boy's hollow legs, satisfy daughter's eye for color and flavor contrast, and give dad food that will tempt him beyond his capacity.

Casserole of baked beans topped with crisp bacon slices
Potato chips Radishes Pickles
Mustard
Hot dogs in toasted wiener buns
Green onions
Potato salad Sliced cold meats
Hard cooked eggs
Slices of red-ripe tomato
Watermelon Assorted small fruits
Coffee Cream Milk

Baked beans are a picnic favorite. They have been included because any picnic meal should include one hot dish. Empty cans of baked beans into a casserole, add catsup, top with bacon and bake in a 325 degree oven for an hour.

Crunchy potato chips, crisp radishes give texture contrast to the soft beans. Use bunches of washed radishes with leaves left on. Place the bunches, leafy part down, in a glass jar. Stick in a few gleaming white onion bulbs and you have a centerpiece as well as a dish of relishes.

The buns are split, buttered, toasted. A hot wiener is inserted. Balance the part of the hot dog that extends beyond one end of the bun by stems of green onions extending at the other end. Herb flavored mustard is even better than plain mustard.

Put the potato salad in a large bowl. Cut rings of green pepper. Insert the rings down the center of the salad. Peel the hard cooked eggs. Cut the fresh tomatoes in thick slices.

Arrange the sliced meat at the last moment lest the edges of the meat curl. Use water cross or parsley for contrast.

The watermelon should be dead ripe and chilled from center to outermost rind. Add small fresh fruits for color accent and appetite appeal. Don't forget to fill the large enamel coffee pot with amber coffee, hot and clear. Everybody ready? Let's go.

Young 'Separates' Do Double-Duty

NEW YORK—Switch-about separates for children, designed by Margit Feilegi, are meant to double a small wardrobe and, at the same time, cut down on laundry. They are also "dress-yourself" styles with no buttons, no snaps and no fasteners.

For school, the jumpers, jackets, and skirts come in corduroy and in sturdy cotton. Blouses and pants-coat, which is a combination panty and petticoat, are shown in white broadcloth or in self-patterned nylon with matching nylon lace. They also come in checked gingham to be worn with solid color jumpers and skirts.

Party news is found in a "little lady" suit of black velvet which has a snowy lace-trimmed blouse. A straight-cut jacket is teamed with a panner jumper.

The "hi-jump" skirt for little girls, and older girls, too, is designed to fit snugly, without alteration. Elastic shirring makes a flexible waist which allows the skirt to "grow" with the child. The skirt is teamed with ruffled blouses which have no buttons or slide fasteners.

A pinafore dress of star-flower printed cotton has ruffles over the shoulders and a small, shirred waist. The full skirt has inserts of solid color.

It's the shirring which makes these corduroy skirts fit without alteration. They "grow" with the child. Buttonless blouse is easy for a small child to put on. Ruffles stretch flat for simple ironing.

First thing, don't forget the ODDS & ENDS sale, Friday, Saturday and Monday — the 11th, 12th and 14th.

Mrs. W. P. Brown and son, Billy Dale, visiting Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ely, were shopping visitors at THE BOOK SHOP this week. They are from Fort Stanton, New Mexico and were delighted to find items needed for a bridal shower, such as, bride's book, monogrammed napkins and Tavern Candles. We have some lovely new picture and plaques — just unpacked. Watch our show windows for new and attractive gift items.

Miss A. T. Barnes and Vila Lee of McCaulley were gift shopping at the BOOK SHOP this week. Mrs. Barnes was especially interested in a white Bible, which she chose.

Miss Vila Lee Barnes selected the shell pink and mist grey in Jubilee for her wedding dinnerware. A full open stock is always available at THE BOOK SHOP.

Have you seen the new designs in Camark Pottery shown in THE BOOK SHOP window this week?

We want to remind you that we have Tavern Candles — all colors and lengths. They are hard to display as the colors are delicate and fade and the heat, of show-window intensity, warps them.

Mrs. J. D. Turner of Sylvester and her niece, Mrs. Bedford were on a shopping tour at THE BOOK SHOP this week.

Friends from Aspermont are always among the visitors from neighboring towns, and this week it was Mrs. A. A. Annis and her daughter, Mrs. Doris Durham.

A. A. Smith of McCaulley was a medical patient in a Rotan hospital last week.

Mrs. George R. McDonald and Richard of Rotan almost always can think of gifts they need when in Hamlin and this week was no exception. A Mother Goose Song Book was chosen for Baby Mary Elizabeth from the large stock of Children's Books.

Dorothy Routh told us about a little gift book, "Eneas Africanus," and we got some copies. It is the story of the devotion of a Southern Darcy to his "White Folks" — a volume to cherish. You'll love it!

TICKET TAKER—When Marcel Pinol, at left, removed his license from behind the sun visor in his car, 21 unpaid and unheeded traffic tickets showered down upon him. He had been stopped by Chicago policeman John Curtin for crashing a red light and driving without a safety sticker. Curtin blinked twice and then handed Pinol two more tickets.

RAMSEY GETS MANFORD'S BACKING

SPEAKER ENDORSES RAMSEY—Speaker of the House Durwood Manford of Smiley, left, announced this week that he would support Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, right, for Lt. Governor. Manford said Ramsey's experience as a House member and as a Senator made him the best qualified man in the race.

Ramsey Praises All Roads Programs

Texas $78,000,000 a-year program of new highway construction emphasis on farm-to-market roads—was praised here today by Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, who is actively forwarding his runoff campaign for lieutenant governor.

"In every section of the state I've visited during my campaign, I found farm-to-market roads completed or under construction," Ramsey said.

"Many more such roads are needed to further the development of our rural sections, and I pledge my fullest support to the members of the state highway commission who are seeking to continue this wise policy," he declared.

"It is also a great source of pride to me, as an economy-minded public servant who for many years in the Texas Legislature has helped to maintain the policies and prestige of our fine highway department, that this vast system of ours is being maintained at a minimum cost, in spite of a tremendous volume of traffic," Ramsey declared.

"This efficient maintenance by the engineering forces of the highway department thus allows the major portion of our state highway funds—some $78,000,000 out of approximately $100,000,000 expended annually on the Texas highway system—to be concentrated upon the construction of new highways, of which the greatest number are the badly-needed farm-to-market roads."

ATTEND JAY REUNION.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jay, James Eddie, Jerry Fred and Gary Ted all of Hamlin attended the Jay family reunion held last Saturday and Sunday at the Presbyterian encampment grounds at Buffalo Gap. The event was the 22nd annual reunion.

Thirteen pieces in a "baker's dozen" originated when King Louis of France warned all bakers who gave under measure that they would be beheaded.

Brooks Opens Run Off Campaign With Strong Vote Plea

Pierce Brooks, Dallas insurance executive who led a field of 11 opponents in the first primary, opened his runoff campaign for lieutenant governor with a charge that his opponent did nothing as a legislator to halt "the runaway cost of state government."

"My opponent was a member of the Texas senate from 1941 to 1948 when the cost of our state government increased approximately 500 per cent and he didn't or couldn't do anything about it then, what can the people expect him to do about it now?"

Brooks also charged that his opponent made no effort during his eight years as a senator to comply with the law providing for legislative redistricting after each federal census. The Dallas County candidate said he always has been a staunch advocate of redistricting.

Brooks hailed the result of the first primary which he lead, as convincing proof that the people of the state want a lieutenant governor who is completely free from entangling alliances and political obligations and who won't be dominated by "a certain group of money hungry and power thirsty individuals who are seeking to control the office of lieutenant governor through the election of one of their key men."

Brooks said that "any man who goes into public office with the all-out support of any special group must pay for that help, one way or another, when and
